Move right into this thoughtfully remodeled townhome located on a quaint tree lined street within a short distance to the shops, restaurants, Winchester Center commuter rail and the nearby walking trails in the Fells. Featuring a custom designed kitchen with modern stainless steel appliances, cherry cabinets, granite countertops, and recessed lighting. The front to back open floor plan is great for everyday living and entertaining. In addition, the first floor has a laundry area, half bath and mudroom. Oak floors flow throughout the home. Period details include beautiful Victorian bay windows and an elegant stained-glass accent window. The outside offers a full-length porch, professionally landscaped yard and 2 car off-street parking. Other highlights upstairs include a generous master suite with a walk-in closet and two additional bedrooms. The third-floor attic provides ample additional storage and potential for future expansion. A perfect home to call your own!
